911 PRAYERS

We are told that the 911 emergency system is state of the art. All you need to do is dial those three numbers and you'll almost instantly be connected to a dispatcher. In front of the dispatcher will be a read-out that lists your phone number, your address, and the name under which that phone number is listed at that address. At immediate call are the police, the fire department and the paramedics.

A caller might not be able to say what the problem is. Or maybe a woman's husband has just suffered a heart attack and she is so out of control that all she can do is scream into the phone. But the dispatcher doesn't need her to say anything. He/she knows where the call is coming from. Help is already on the way.

There come times in our lives when in our desperation and pain we dial 911 prayers. Sometimes we're hysterical. Sometimes we don't know the words to speak. But God hears anyway. He knows our name and our circumstance. Just as important, help is on the way. God has already begun to bring the remedy the moment we called (Romans 8:26-17).
