GOD KNOWS HIS OWN

How do you get a great parking space at a New York Yankees baseball game? One man thought he had a way. According to the Fresno, California Bee, this man pulled his car into the VIP parking lot and casually told the attendant that he was a friend of George Steinbrenner, then owner of the Yankees.

Unfortunately for the impostor, the person attending the parking lot that day was George Steinbrenner himself, doing some personal investigation of traffic problems at the stadium.

The surprised impostor looked at Steinbrenner and said, "Guess I've got the wrong lot." You can be sure that he did not park in the VIP lot that day or ever. The owner knows his friends. The owner determines who gets into the VIP lot.

God also knows those who are His. When Jesus, on that last great day, delivers the kingdom up to the Father, only those who belong to his "called out ones" will be recognized. The time to get into to the kingdom and to get one's name in the Lamb's Book of Life is now!

During the Bible class hour, all classes 6th grade and up will meet in the auditorium. After the morning service, everyone is invited to a congregational fellowship (check with your Family Circle leader on what to bring). Our afternoon service will begin immediately following lunch, and there will be no 5:00 pm service that evening. We look forward to spending the day with Jay and his wife, Arlene.
