JOY

"I remember coming home one afternoon to discover that the kitchen I had worked so hard to clean only a few hours before was now a terrible wreck. My young daughter had obviously been busy "cooking" and the ingredients were scattered, along with dirty bowls and utensils, across the counters and floor. I was not happy with the situation.

Then, as I looked a little more closely at the mess, I spied a tiny note on the table, clumsily written and smeared with chocolaty fingerprints. The message was short - "I'm making sumthin 4 you, Dad," - and it was signed, "Your Angel."

In the midst of that disarray, and despite my irritation, joy suddenly sprang up in my heart, sweet and pure. My attention had been redirected from the problem to the little girl that I loved. As I encountered her in that brief note, I delighted in her. I could take pleasure in seeing her hand at work in a situation that seemed other-wise disastrous."

The same is true of our joy in the Lord. Many times life looks rather messy. We can't find much to be happy about our circumstances. But if we look hard enough, we can usually see the Lord's handprint in it all, or at least working through it all, "makin' sumthin" for us and of us. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Those In Need of Our Prayers

Darlene Baad was moved to Crowne Healthcare on Tuesday, May 10 for rehab.

Debra Donohue, daughter of Mary McAndrews, had a massive stroke . Debra is experiencing poor vision, very little movement on one side of her body, but she is talking. Mary plans to go to be with Debra very soon in Plano, TX.

Mayre Freeman, grandmother of Will Freeman, passed away on Saturday, May 7, in Waynesboro, MS. Her funeral was held on Saturday, May 14.

In the Hispanic Wednesday night service on May 11, Iker Fuentes had a seizure. Iker is almost 2 years old and they suspect the seizure could have been the result of recent immunizations. He went to Baptist East, but was able to go home the same night and he is doing fine now.
