YOUR MANNER OF LIFE...

A Christian's life should stand out to the world as different. We should be like zebras among horses. When our life is indistinguishable from the world then we are like albino zebras. They really are zebras, their parents are zebras, they have zebra DNA, and they know they are zebras on the inside. But to all who see them from the outside they are no different than any other horse.

Someone has said that it's not our choice as to whether or not we believers wish to be "epistles of Christ known and read of all men." We just are! So the only question that remains is, "What is the message others read in you?" Annie Johnson Flints has written:

We are the only Bible
 The careless world will heed,
 We are the sinner's gospel,
 We are the scoffer's creed.

We are the Lord's last message,
 Given in deed and word.
 What if the type is crooked?
 What if the print is blurred?

R. Medlin
